CHARLIE FOSTER FAILS.

Once a Millionaire, He Cannot Now Pay His Debts.

He Endorsed for Friends and Thereby Hangs the Tale

Of His Struggle With Adversity and Final Defeat.

Full Particulars of the Sad Financial Calamity Which Has Befallen the Late Secretary of the Treasury.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 26.—A special from Fostoria, Ohio, says:

"Secretary Foster and the Foster Banking company has resigned. Great excitement."

FOSTORIA, Ohio, May 26.—Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles Foster has failed and has made an assignment.

Mr. Foster was for years a dry goods merchant in this city, where he was born and reared. He inherited quite a fortune from his father, and this by judicious management and splendid business abilities, he largely increased.

EX-SECRETARY OF TREASURY FOSTER.

Soon after the war closed he helped to organize the Fostoria National bank. By shrewd speculation in real estate he became wealthy and in 1879 was reported to be worth $1,000,000. He was never in politics until 1872 when the republicans of his district prevailed upon him to accept the nomination for congress. This he did, and, although the district was some 2500 democratic, "Calico Charley" as he was known, was elected and re-elected for the second term, but when he ran for the third time against Judge Geo. E. Seney, of Tiffin, he was defeated. In 1879 he was elected governor of Ohio and re-elected for a second term.

During the next four years he lost heavily in Lake Superior copper mines, in natural gas and street railway speculations. At Findlay during its temporary boom he invested largely. When the bubble burst, he, with many others, was caught for many thousands of dollars. He also lost by indorsing notes for business and political friends. Since then he has attempted to recoup his losses, but only became deeply involved. The crash was temporarily averted by his appointment as secretary of the treasury. It is thought he will at best not be able to more than pay his debts.

THE PARTICULARS OF THE FAILURE.

Mr. Foster's assignee is A. B. Gormley, a prominent banker of Bucyrus, and a warm friend of Mr. Foster. The liabilities are given out by Mr. Foster as being $700,000 and the assets as about the same. He made the assignment during the night and the papers were filed at Tiffin by Mr. Scott, his attorney. At an early hour this morning the bank of Foster & Co. was closed on an attachment for $3,200 in favor of the Isaac Harter Milling company, and at the same time the wholesale grocery house of Davis & Foster was closed by an attachment for $1,200 in favor of O. T. Brown. The pressure of the sheriff was the first inkling many people had that there was something wrong and it soon leaked out that an assignment had been made. The news spread rapidly and soon the streets were filled with people eager to learn the extent of the calamity that had befallen the city. The assignment of Secretary Foster was the signal for the assignment of a number of concerns in which he was interested. The Bass Foundry and Iron works was one of the concerns to assign. Besides Mr. Foster Mr. Parks was one of the owners of this concern. The liabilities and assets of this company are included with the personal statement of the secretary. The Manhoney, Calcined and Crockery and the Window Glass companies, three concerns that have been backed by Mr. Foster, will assign today. The extent of the failure is so great that its significance can scarcely be realized. A half dozen of the prominent industries will go to the wall and hundreds of the people be thrown out of employment. The loss to business men who were depositors in Foster & Co's bank is one of the deplorable features of the crash, but it is confidently believed that none of them will suffer to an extent that will cause them to assign. A run was made on the Mechanics' Savings bank this morning as soon as its doors were opened, but with $50,000 in currency piled upon the cashier's desk the demands of all frightened depositors was promptly met and none turned away.

The loss to Fostoria will be a great one and one that will take considerable time to recover from, but great as it is, the regret on this account in no way leverns the regret and sympathy expressed for the secretary. It is generally conceded that his unstinted generosity and phenomenal public spirit have been the indirect causes of his financial downfall, as he was ever ready to lend a helping hand to the poor and worthy.

The assignment of Davis & Foster, the wholesale grocers, will probably be the direct cause of the failure of a number of grocery concerns throughout the country. It is said that the notes have $50,000 unpaid memoranda and notes due it.

The deposits of the bank at the time of the last statement were about $175,000. Just as a measure of comparison what they are at the present time, or the builder of the company, Mr. F. W. Wilkinson, is not at liberty to say how the same are making a public statement. Mr. Wilkinson is the treasurer of the Fostoria school district. The board of education had $14,000 on cash on hand, and as Messrs. Davis and Foster are his landsmen, it is probable that the loss in this case will be considerable.

NON-CLEVELAND CLERKS.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 25.—The National Bank of Commerce, of this city, has been the correspondent of the Fostoria institution. Inquiry at the latter brought out the information that Foster's bank did little business in this city. It had an open account at the National Bank of Commerce, on which it owes only $4,000 in round numbers, which the bank officials consider perfectly good in the final round up. Inquiry at various banks resulted in information to the effect that for some time past the Foster Banking company has been seeking to borrow considerable sums in this city, but so far as could be learned had been invariably denied. The cause of the trouble in Fostoria is stated by local financiers to be the fact that Foster has been the backbone of numerous Fostoria industries, which, being bothered by the Republican, have fallen back upon him and pushed him harder than he could stand. A dispatch from Tiffin, where the assignment was filed, says, a pointer seems to have been given to the Isaac Harter Milling company, and to O. T. Brown, for at 2 o'clock this morning the former secured an attachment for $4,200, and the latter for $1,200, and Sheriff Burgess went to Fostoria at once and levied on sufficient goods to secure their claims. Excitement runs high here and it is feared that many in this city will be losers in the failure.

WILL GIVE UP HIS SEAT.

Hon. Walter Olds Resigns as Judge of the Supreme Court.

He Will Engage in the Law Business in Chicago With Ex-Secretary of State C. L. Griffin.

The resignation of Judge Walter Olds, of Columbus City, as a member of the supreme court of Indiana is announced. It is another illustration of the fact that Republican lawyers are compelled to make financial sacrifices to remain on the bench. For a number of years Judge Olds was a prominent and successful lawyer, when he was called to the circuit bench and in the defeat of the democracy in 1888, he was elected to the supreme bench. His decisions have met with much approval at the hands of his professional brethren. He retires to engage in the practice of his profession in Chicago in partnership with Hon. Charles F. Griffin, formerly secretary of state of Indiana, and who has built up a large corporation law practice in the two years he has resided in the city of the great fair. Mr. Olds' resignation will take effect on the 10th of next month, and his many friends in Fort Wayne hope that he may be successful in his new location.

Hon. Thomas R. Marshall, of Columbia City, is the only person so far announced to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Olds' disposition. He is one of the leading lawyers in northern Indiana and a very competent and popular gentleman. He has many warm friends in Fort Wayne who would be pleased to hear of his appointment.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN.

Three-Champion Fined for Assaulting a Lawyer.

BRUNSWICK, Maine, May 26.—John L. Sullivan did not appear in court today to answer the charge of assaulting lawyer M. L. Lesote. The ex-champion was represented by Counsel Thomas Leigh, Jr., who pleaded guilty on behalf of his client and a fine of $100 and costs was imposed.

LOCAL NEWS.

Otto Greshorn is in the city.

Joe Will has returned from Cleveland, Ohio.

E. V. Emrick has returned from Detroit, where he went on legal business.

At the next meeting of the Elks the deputy auditor and the ex-county surveyor of Auburn will be initiated as members.

James Wilkinson and his father-in-law, Mr. May, have gone to Clear Lake for a few days to spend the time at Mr. Wilkinson's summer hotel.

B. F. Austin has returned from a trip of the Indiana gas region where he has been in the interest of his invention, the locomotive steam breaker. Many of the towns offer him great inducements to locate his manufactory for the stone breakers in their places.

The annual convention of the Epworth league, Fort Wayne district, will be held at the Methodist church in Auburn, June 21 and 22. The program is quite comprehensive and each essay paper by members from different parts of the district upon the work of the organization. Miss Ella B. Willard, of this city, has a paper upon the department of literary work and Miss Luella Boles will read one upon the department of entertainment. The latter even ing is devoted to an address and musical entertainment, and Miss Schrader, of Fort Wayne, appears on the program.

At Baltimore—Baltimore vs. Pittsburg.

At New York—New York vs. Philadelphia.

At Cleveland—Cleveland vs. Louisville.

FORT WAYNE HONORED.

D. J. Shaw Elected President of the Butchers' Association

At Their Convention Held at Evansville—The Championship Contest for Cash Ruling.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 25.—D. J. Shaw, of Fort Wayne, was yesterday afternoon elected president of the Butcher's National Protective association. He is a prominent butcher and a man in every way capable of filling the position.

The feature of the day was the great contest of calf dressing. In the absence of Messrs. Bamberger, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Pfeiffer, of New York, who were to be present, the committee arranged for a contest between two famous experts of St. Louis. Arrangements were made for the contest shortly before 5 o'clock. Messrs. Gottlieb Haller, of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Wm. Koehler, St. Louis, Wm. Mannenmeyer, Burlington, Iowa; John Fromhold, Indianapolis, and Gus Meebek, Wheeling, W. Va., were selected as judges. Mr. J. Meyers, editor of the Butchers' Advocate, of New York, officiated as timekeeper.

Mr. C. Batzweiler, aged thirty years, and Fred Stahl, aged twenty-two, both residents of St. Louis, were the contestants. The judges announced that the calves should be dressed in St. Louis style. The animals were killed before being placed in the hands of the contestants. The dressing included the breaking of the animals ribs and dressing the hind quarters with suet.

It was a few minutes after 5 o'clock when each contestant was provided with three carcasses, when they set to work. The contest was sharp and was watched by an immense crowd. Mr. Batzweiser completed his task in nineteen minutes and forty-one and one-half seconds, and Mr. Stahl completed his work three minutes later. The judges then announced the result of the contest to the spectators, and presented the contestants with prizes.

THEIR BLOOD IS UP!

Two Kentucky Legislators May Fight a Duel

As the Result of a Personal Difficulty Which They Had on the Floor of the House.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 26.—There is danger of a meeting between two members of the house of representatives as a result of the most exciting scene in the history of the body.

The house had under consideration what is known as the "anti-strike law," the object of which is to prevent the unlawful practice of intimidating with traffic and transportation. Representative Kramer, of Louisville, favored the measure.

Mr. Botts, of Shelby, opposed the bill, and during his remarks referred to him as potter's clay in the hands of the corporations. Kramer sprang to his feet and likened Botts to Judas Iscariot. He paced across the aisle and brandished him as a liar, scoundrel, and applied other epithets. Mr. Botts made a move towards Kramer, but friends prevented them from clinching. Kramer rushed out of the hall and returned soon with his revolver. Friends, however, overpowered him, and kept him in the house cloak room until he cooled off.

SOUTH AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

There Is No Doubt That San Juan Del Norte Will Be Surrendered.

PANAMA, May 26.—It has been learned that the Nicaragua Canal company's lake steamer Victoria, the whereabouts of which has been shrouded in mystery, is being used as a troop transport by the revolutionists. As such it was of great service in conveying 500 soldiers to San Carlos, which fort was surrendered on the 12th inst. without a shot being fired. Inasmuch as Ryan, the most important point on the Mosquito coast, is in the hands of the revolutionary generals, Alexander, Canet Berkin and Allaro, there is no doubt but that San Juan Del Norte will be quickly surrendered. The proclamation of Santiago Morales, as president, is not construed as a permanent appointment, but merely a temporary makeshift to give credit to the revolutionary party.

LOST THEIR LIVES.

Two Men Meet Death in a Fire at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 25.—In a fire which broke out at Nos. 1220 and 1222 Wabash avenue at 2 o'clock this morning, two men lost their lives. The name of one is Thomas McDonell, but the other man was unknown. Geo. Jones and C. Brown were rescued from No. 1222 Wabash avenue. They were overcome by smoke, but revived shortly after being taken from the building. The fire started on the second floor of No. 1222 in a room occupied by Thomas McDonnell and his unknown companion. In some manner a lamp was overturned and exploded. It is supposed that the two men were suffocated or burned to death before the fire was discovered. The total loss of property will not exceed $4,000.

Farmer Attempts Rape.

CRAWFORD, Ind., May 25.—Joseph Moffett, a Wabash township farmer, was arrested charged with a foul crime committed on early hour yesterday morning. Every man in the house, with the exception of Moffett, was at work in the fields. Mrs. Moffett was alone in the house with her children. Moffett entered the house and attempted to commit a criminal assault upon his wife. She resisted his advances and succeeded in escaping from the house. Moffett pursued her, but she succeeded in reaching the house of a neighbor. Moffett returned home and left the premises. Warrants were issued for his arrest on the charge of rape. He was arrested and lodged in jail. Moffett is a married man and has a family of children.

LEVELED THINGS!

The Destructive Work of a Cyclone in the West.

Many Buildings Blown Down, Hundreds of Trees Uprooted and People Severely Injured.

MOBERLY, Mo., May 25.—A cyclone struck this city at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, leveling barns and smaller buildings and uprooting hundreds of trees. There is not a shed in the lumber yards here that was not uprooted. The full extent of the storm's damage is not known. It is feared that lives have been lost.

The storm came from the southwest and prostrated all telephone and telegraph wires in the southern part of the city, making communication from the outside almost impossible.

At Brookfield, Mo., the storm struck the round house of the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad and it was partially demolished. Some of the engines were badly damaged. A number of workmen were in the building at the time, but all escaped unhurt.

Hail accompanied the storm at New Cambria, Mo., and did considerable damage to crops. Barns and outbuildings also suffered.

At Martinsburg, Mo., a severe wind storm struck that place, levelling trees, fences and outbuildings and doing much other damage. Nineteen loaded freight cars were blown off the Wabash track and their contents scattered about the Eddie.

Garnett, Kas., reports a cyclone there last evening coming from the southeast. Barns and outhouses were destroyed and much minor damage was done. As far as known nobody was hurt.

VANDALIA, Mo., May 25.—A terrible cyclone struck Ludlonia, ten miles west of here at 5 o'clock last evening, killing Jack Wills, of Farber, Mo., and seriously injuring six others. Five large business houses and five dwellings were completely destroyed. Many buildings were badly damaged. The rain poured in torrents all night and no definite news has been received. The cyclone also struck the town of Rock Hill, a few miles further west, and done considerable damage, but no lives were lost.

OPPOSED TO CHINESE.

Big Anti-Chinese Meeting Held at Seattle, Wash.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 26.—Pioneer square was crowded last night with several thousand people in attendance upon the anti-Chinese meeting. The purpose of the meeting was for a public expression of opinion as to the enforcement of the Geary act. The crowd was enthusiastic but orderly. President Cleveland was condemned in a series of resolutions for interfering with the carrying out of the act. No political significance was given to the meeting with the exception that a few orators of the populist party attempted to air their views. The character of the crowd was of the solid labor classes and all appeared determined in the opinion that the Chinese must be driven out. One of the resolutions passed was to the effect that Attorney General Olney seize all the property of the Six Companies and use the proceeds of the sale to deport Chinese.

BANKER ROCKAFELLOW

In Port Under Arrest at Williamsport, Pa., for Embezzlement.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., May 26.—Last February Private Banker E. V. Rockafellow closed the doors of his bank on 600 depositors. The report of the assignees showed that depositors would get 1 per cent on the dollar. A meeting of all the depositors was held yesterday afternoon. Here before it was impossible to serve warrants of arrest on the cashier and he remained in bed. Physicians testified that he was unable to leave his bed. Last evening Constable Bower discovered on a delivery man for a grocery store, got access to Rockafellow's kitchen. He made his way upstairs and served nine warrants on the banker charging him with embezzlement. Rockafellow furnished bail in sum of $25,000. More warrants will be served on today and it is believed that Rockafellow can not secure sufficient amount of bail to keep him out of jail.

Detective Commits Suicide.

PARIS, Ind., May 26.—W. M. Capron, a well known citizen of Amboy, this county, and a detective in the employ of the Pennsylvania railway, shot and instantly killed himself this morning. The cause leading to the act are unknown, others that certain charges were preferred against him by his fourteen year old daughter, committed while his wife was away undergoing a surgical operation. The child leaves explicit note from memorandum book stating which he took his life.

Retired Lawyer Disappeared.

TERRE HAUTE, May 26.—Michael M. Foley, a retired lawyer, forty-five years old, who at one time was an extensive operator in coal, disappeared from his home on the south side of the city Tuesday morning. It was discovered that he had left his bed at an early hour and dressed himself. He then went to the stable and hitched up a horse and buggy and drove away. He has not been seen since. He left a note stating that he was tired of life and intended to commit suicide. He was last seen driving toward the river. Search is being made for him.

KILLED BY A FALL.

Sad Accident Causes the Death of Rudolph Guler.

He Was Thrown From a Truck and Injured Internally, Causing Away This Morning.

Rudolph Guler, a Swiss gardener, met with an accident in this city, yesterday morning which resulted in his death at o'clock a. m. today.

The deceased resided three miles north of this city, on the St. Joe road, in St. Joe township. He had a truck and flower garden near the first toll gate. Yesterday morning Guler came to the city in a truck, driving a four years young horse. He brought with him a load of vegetables and flowers, which he was selling about the city to his regular customers. At 10 o'clock he was in front of Hartman's grocery, near the corner of Hanna and Wallace streets, when the animal became frightened and began to kick. The animal plunged and nearly demolished the vehicle. Guler held on to the lines as best he could but was finally thrown from the truck, striking the hard ground on his head and shoulders. The animal ran at a break neck speed down the street. The injured man was picked up in an unconscious state and carried into the home of Jacob Hunziker, who resides at No 25 Force street. Dr Kreiter was sent for and upon making an examination found that Guler had sustained serious injuries. He was suffering from internal hemorrhage and severe concussion of the brain.

The wife of the injured man was sent for and came to the city at once. Her husband did not regain consciousness and at 8 o'clock this morning passed away.

The body was taken in charge by Undertaker Wellman and was this afternoon removed to the late home of the deceased. The funeral will occur Sunday from the house at 1 o'clock and at 2:30 from the St. John's German Reformed church, this city. Rev. Schaaf officiating.

Mr. Guler was forty five years of age and has been in this country for the past fifteen years. He has two grown sons, who are both away from home, and a small child, who lived at the residence with his parents. The deceased has resided near this city for the past four years, coming here from Michigan. He recently purchased four acres of ground from Senator Fred Hayden and has also been farming some of the senator's land.

The coroner will hold the inquest tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock, in Attorney H. I. Smith's office.

Mr. Guler was a man highly respected by those who knew him and was a member of the Gruetli Verein, which order will have charge of the funeral. Mr. J. A. Rennison, a neighbor of the deceased, was in the city today and was greatly grieved over the sad death of his friend.

RAIN AND LIGHTNING

Play Havoc With Property at St. Louis.

The Heavy Rainfall Expected to Raise the River Six Feet.

ST. LOUIS, May 25.—The Missouri and Mississippi valleys were visited last night by one of the most terrific thunder storms that has swept over this section since back in the 50's. The storm extended as far west as Kansas City and as far north as Keokuk. The average rain fall reported at 1 o'clock this morning was 3.01, and the rain is still falling in torrents. Considerable damage has been caused in the city by cellars being inundated.

Lightning struck the stables of Whalen Brothers, at 2,922 Spring avenue, and twelve horses were burned to death. During the heavy gale last night the telephone, telegraph and electric wires were badly demoralized and communication was seriously interrupted. From reports received this afternoon from points up the river it is expected that the Mississippi river will rise five feet within the next four days. This will make a serious state of affairs along the levee, below here and serious apprehension is felt for the safety of people at Helena, Arkansas City and Vicksburg. Telegrams from Memphis, Mo., say that north of that city Henry McCue was fatally injured by a barn blowing on him. A house blew down and killed John Wiley, near Luddenia, on Youngs creek, north of Mexico. The storm was severe, but no heavier wind. The corn is knee high now and several other houses were blown down at Mattoonburg.

The storm passed through Crystal City last night about 10:30, doing great damage to property. Six houses on the south side of the town, Salina Jolly, were totally destroyed, the occupants barely escaping with their lives. Chas. E. Patton, one side merchant of this, died has been blown over. Among a portion of the roof of one of the packing houses at the glass works was blown off.

ALEXANDRIA, Ill., May 25.—The city has been visited by the most severe storm in the memory of the oldest residents. About 12 o'clock this morning rain, which began after dark, was succeeded by a terrific electric storm, and in a few minutes the south part of the city was under water. The electric light plant was put out of commission, and when daylight came it was found that the streets were strewn with debris. Trees were uprooted, fences blown down and frame outbuildings were carried away. The people have not yet recovered from the fright, and all business houses were closed with locks and chains.

TITLES CLEAR.

President Cleveland Approves the Deeds of Valuable Lands.

A Matter That Has Been a Subject of Much Legislation Finally Settled Satisfactory.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—President Cleveland has approved the deeds of the Cherokee and Chickasaw nations for their right and title to the "leased lands" in the Indian Territory, formerly occupied by the Cheyennes and Arapahoes, but now constituting a portion of Oklahoma Territory, for which the sum of $2,991 1.0 was appropriated by the Indian appropriation act of March 3, 1891. The conditions were required to execute leases and conveyances to extinguish their claims in a manner and form satisfactory to the president. President Harrison declined to approve the deeds submitted for the release of the lands and stated his reasons to congress in a special message at the first session of the fifty second congress. Both senate and house, nevertheless, passed resolutions declaring in effect that no further legislation was required in this matter. On January 18, 1893, an act was passed directing that of the sum appropriated, $15,000 should be retained from the appropriation to cover an over estimate of the lands ceded. The matter remained without action until on February 24, 1893, when Secretary Noble submitted to President Harrison new conveyances, modified so as to conform to the act of January 18, 1892, deducting $18,900, which conveyances he pronounced to be perfect, suggesting that if the president should sign the certificate of approval he would authorize the payment of the money appropriated. The deeds remained in President Harrison's possession until March 3, 1893, when he returned them to Secretary Noble without his signature, explaining in his letter of transmittal that while he had opposed the appropriation, the matter had been again affirmatively acted upon by congress; that he was first inclined to return the matter to congress for further consideration, but as the payment was so strongly supported in both houses, he did not do so.

THE COURTS.

Callings From the Different Courts of the City on a Dull Day.

The case of the state against James M. Vaugn, for malicious trespass, is on trial before Justice France.

George F. Bottenberg and Ethel Warner, Michael Crow and Alice L. Seaman, Charles C. Nave and Nellie J. Clark have been licensed to wed.

The case of Peter J. Ronzen against Elizabeth N. Melly has been appealed from Justice Tansey to the circuit court. The Hamms are attorneys for the plaintiff, and Colerick and Ryan for the defendant.

The jury which tried the Madden-Hyun case was a remarkable one in regard to weight and age. The average weight of the different members was 166½ pounds and their ages sixty-one years.

The commissioners have approved the petition of County Assessor Hartman, asking for a deputy to assist him for the next thirty days. Mr. Heath will name the man.

The board of commissioners yesterday awarded contracts to paint some of the iron bridges of the county. W. C. Bishop will paint all the low truss bridges at nineteen cents a foot; Henry Smith will paint the high truss bridges in Jackson, Milan and Maumee townships at forty cents a foot, and W. C. Howey will paint five low and three high truss bridges in Perry, Springfield and Cedar Creek townships.

Louis Fox yesterday filed with County Recorder Foehl a plat of twenty one choice lots in the Fox addition, traversed by Walnut, Fox and Poplar streets. Kidney & Heaton have also filed a plat of a forty-four lot addition to South Wayne. It runs on Broadway, and is bounded by Bruce and Organ streets.

JAPANESE PILE CURE

Remember, is a sure treatment; not a few chances in a hundred, but sure only for the benefit is sure to be cured; money is no object. Every certificate of a cure is genuine. Always beware of one who promises as much as we do, unless he has the means to back it up. If we have it for any sort of piles we say so. If we can't cure, we say so. Try it; then consult.

THE cyclone continues its work of destruction in the west, as will be seen by our telegraph columns today.

THE arrangements for the observance of Memorial Sunday and Decoration day in this city are completed. The brave defenders of our flag will be lovingly remembered and their deeds applauded long after the present generation has passed from the stage of action.

OLIVER M. CUNNINGHAM, of South Bend, has been appointed circuit judge of the Thirty-second judicial district by the governor. He will fill out the term of Peter D. Connally, who died recently. Mr. Cunningham was elected to the position last November, but would not have assumed it for a year yet.

A TELEGRAM has been received by United States Attorney General Olney from New York, stating that Judge Lacombe, of the circuit court, of New York, had decided that section 6 of the Geary law, although decided to be constitutional, was intiffectual because no provision is made as to how or by whom the order of exportation of Chinese is to be executed. This is said to be a new question which was not raised or in any way involved in previous appeals.

THE news of the failure of Hon Chas. Foster, late secretary of the treasury under President Harrison is indeed startling and unexpected. He was one of the wealthiest men in northern Ohio and has for years been looked upon as a man possessed of splendid abilities. He was a millionaire before he entered politics, about twenty years ago. He inherited a fortune from his father, but this in a dozen years of business for himself he increased ten times over. Our telegrams today tell the story of his failure.

THE city council of Wabash, in an economical mood, reduced the salary of the street commissioner from $600 to $450 per annum, and that official resigned. The council also cut the salary of the city treasurer from $150 to $700, but his sureties for his bond refused to go his bail for the summer. The salaries fixed for the other officers stand as follows: Mayor, $400 and fees; clerk, $300; marshal, $900 and fees; city attorney $100, city civil engineer $500 chief of fire department, $25 councilmen, $2 for each regular and $1 for each special meeting with $50 per year each additional for members of the street and alley committee; deputy marshal $500.

IT is already evident that the world's fair will not pay, on the score of providing a profitable return on the money invested. The official estimation is that to barely meet expenses there must be an average daily attendance of 90,000. With the exception of opening day at no time have these figures been reached. Thus far the receipts have averaged less than $30,000 a day. Last week Tuesday when the Masonian building was dedicated fifteen persons were admitted. On Thursday but 27,000 entered the gates. The week thus far the patronage has been still lighter, only 25,000 persons reached the fair on Monday and 32,000 Tuesday. The attendance will be larger later in the season when the fair is in more perfect order and the rush of home and foreign patronage is at its height. But all thought of getting back the money spent in the undertaking may as well be abandoned. But while the world's fair cannot be profitable in a financial sense, its benefits will be great and far reaching. Beyond question it will afford the grandest illustration of human progress in mechanics, invention, manufactures and arts ever made.

THE cities and towns of Canada have revived the ancient custom of ringing the curfew, an act to that effect having been passed at the last session of parliament. The ringing is to take place at 9 o'clock in the evening, and if any person under seventeen years of age are found in the streets after ragels they are to be lurked up by the police and in other ways treated no disorderly persons. In the olden times the curfew was rung at nightfall, and everybody went to bed. The Canada act is in danger of stimulating the emigration of the young folks to the United States, where there are no curfews but lots of front gates.

An Immigration Law.

No very important step toward further restriction of immigration was taken by the congress which came to an end on the 4th of last March, but a bill was passed in the last hours of the session, and has become a law, which will probably make it more difficult for steamship companies to bring into the country paupers, criminals or persons whose labor has been contracted for. This bill requires steamship companies to prepare at the port of departure lists or manifests of their immigrant passengers, identifying the passengers and containing full information concerning them. These lists, properly authenticated, are to be delivered to the immigrant inspectors at the American port where the passengers are landed. Heretofore the steamship companies have not documented or identified their passengers in any effective way. It will, of course, be difficult for a steamship company to give a satisfactory account of an immigrant of whom nothing, or nothing good, is known, and pauper and criminal immigration may be hindered by the new measure to some extent. Much yet remains to be done, however, before the legislation on this subject is likely to satisfy a public sentiment which has been thoroughly aroused.

RECENTLY a job printing concern was established in one of the upper floors of a ten-story building in New York city, with the usual result that the structure was made to oscillate by the vibration of the presses. Ceilings were cracked, woodwork was warped, tenants and employes were alarmed. The architect of the building on being summoned said: "It is a mistake. There can't be any motion. When he reached the place and was hitted to the top floor, where an earthquake appeared to be in progress, he took off wise for a moment and remarked: "Motion? Certainly there is. If the building didn't swing it wouldn't be safe." And the presses are still running.

A COMMITTEE of the Pennsylvania legislature was lately sent to inspect the state asylum for the insane. There was a dance on the night the committee arrived, and one of the legislators took for a partner one of the fair inmates, to whom he was introduced as "I don't remember having seen you here before" said he. "How long have you been in the asylum?" "I came down to-day as one of the legislative committee," told the gentleman. "Of course!" replied the lady. "The moment I looked at you I knew you were either an inmate or a member of the legislature, but now you'd know? They look so much alike."

THE threatened disfranchisement of the Delaware militia results, it is said, from a feeling among the rural voters, who rule Delaware, that such an organization has expensive ties. The whole state government of Delaware, including the pay of legislators and lobbyists, costs less than three hundred thousand dollars a year, and to support a little three thousand dollars a year militia seems more than it offers the real voter as a full equivalent. The governor some years ago gave notice that no more militia companies could be organized with the old of the state.

THE late Gen. Beale is said to have brought the first specimens of gold from California to the east in 1848. He carried through Mexico with Capt. Gillespie on an English lieutenant. It was a dangerous place for Americans so soon after the war—and managed to get aboard the United States ship Saratoga, then lying off Mazatlan, in command of Capt. Informant Lindsay Farragut. It was the report of this brought by Gen Beale that first initiated the gold fever all over the country.

THE proprietors of the Saturday Review [illegible] the world's fair if Hadley is [illegible] them by two ways, first by disabling [illegible] their patronage, and secondly, by making it harder to secure good help. The Maine papers report that the wages for help in all the cotton mills [illegible] the fact that the factory workers shall hereafter have to [illegible] to note of fare for the summer.

THE Michigan legislature has increased on an outside vote per order. A row of perpendicular lines indicate the parties and a row of horizontal keys the offices. The political parties are also distinguished by different colors. The voter presses the key for each candidate for whom he wishes to vote and the automatic recorder does the rest.

TO CONSTERNATE the increasing tendency to universities and [illegible] of language among a certain class of young would-be men, a "Brotherhood of Christian Unity" has been formed in England!

THE growth of trade ever known on the Mississippi reached its highest point; [illegible] of property from Kansas City to New Orleans was [illegible] many lives lost, but [illegible] unknown. Six persons were killed by a cloudburst at Kingston, O.

THE family of Topsham, of Newburyport, Mass., still holds to the land that has been in the family without interruption from its origin over a half century.

AT Idaho mines reported a clean-up from a mill and a national bank in a [illegible] the same amount of money to [illegible] Monday last. The bars will make [illegible] trips between the mines and one of which is large enough to carry [illegible] each trip.

ANOTHER instance of long-delayed justice in the matter of patent rights was the decision by Judge Green of the validity of Mr. Edison's famous "main and feeder" patent, governing the distribution of electricity for lighting and other purposes. This patent was issued in 1888. It cost the inventor infinite pains, the highest ingenuity, great outlay in exhaustive experiments, yet the first gang of moneyed brigands that came along appropriated the invention boldly, and, as we see, it cost $100,000 and five years of time to take the evidence which established Mr. Edison's priority to the invention. Tardy though it be, the decision is one to be joyful over, and Mr. Edison is to be congratulated on these simultaneous, one after another benefits his genius and his persistence. Everybody to a patent brigand is a stroke for honesty and business. But what a state of law that makes the long delay possible!

RAILWAY RUMBLINGS.

The Nickel Plate's New Trains Go On Sunday.

Personal Points and News Paragraphs as Taken From the Note Book of Our Railway Reporter.

The new Nickel Plate train schedule goes into effect next Sunday. The time cards arrived in the city last evening. The schedule, in addition to the four passenger trains now running on the road, includes the New York and Chicago fast flyer, Nos. 5 and 6, which will make their first trip Sunday. The time card as it affects Fort Wayne is as follows.

EAST BOUND.

No. 2	...	1:05 a. m.
No. 4	...	4:25 a. m.
No. 6	...	7:40 a. m.

WEST BOUND.

No. 1	...	2:25 a. m.
No. 3	...	12:40 a. m.
No. 5	...	4:45 a. m.

These new trains necessitate additional passenger crews, consequently a number of freight conductors, engineers, firemen and brakemen will be promoted. The favored conductors are Joseph Staley, Eugene Bantum, Ed T. Conley, Thomas Harper, Willis Druzer and George Layman. The engineers are Thomas Peters, Patrick McGushan, M. J. Maroney, James Hartigan and William Morris, and the firemen are M. Caine, Frank Cardaway, W. G. Neel, Frank Kelley and W. Brumfield. All trains will run daily, including Sunday. The new schedule has been arranged with a view of catching the world's fair business, particularly on the western end of the line, as trains run into Chicago in the morning and out in the evening, giving the passengers a full day in the city.

The conductors and brakemen will have to make Chicago or Bellevue their headquarters, and by this arrangement Fort Wayne will lose some very good citizens. The engineers and firemen continue their residence in this city.

BUSINESS OF RETRENCH.

Chauncey M. Depew says "The idea that the business of the railroads in 1893 is going to be disappointing is a mistaken one. The outlook for the roads, in my opinion, is better than for years. Trunk line rates have not been so well maintained in ten years, and the increase in gross earnings, therefore, means a greater corresponding increase in net earnings. Up to the middle of June there is no doubt to be expected from the world's fair, but after that time there will be one which will make the business of the roads something phenomenal. Travel to Chicago has not been started, and yet room on the New York Central train is now engaged four weeks ahead."

IRON MEETS OPPOSITION.

The scheme of Eugene Debs to organize a new order, to be known as the American Railway union, is creating a good deal of talk among the railroads. It meets with considerable opposition from members of the old organizations. It is believed that Mr. Debs will succeed in alluring a large number of the more conservative members of the old organizations to the new union of interests. It is thought he will experience the most trouble in getting engineers to become members, as attached are they to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. But the dues of a member of the American Railway union are so small that one can belong to both his old and the new association without largely increasing his expenses. It is well known that to belong to some of the older orders it is quite expensive. Yet it should be said that the benefits in belonging to some of the better of the old organizations, in case of accident, illness or death, is no small item and those who have not investigated the matter do not understand how much these benefits add the family of a railroad man if he is unfortunate.

RAILWAY BUSINESS DEMORALIZED.

The volume of both freight and passenger business at the present time is disappointing, the grain movement, the live stock movement and, in fact, the tonnage of miscellaneous freights, is unusually light for May; and the travel to the world's fair has thus far fallen far below expectations, although in the past week there has been something of an increase. Naturally, travel east and west, north and south, is affected by the prospective world's fair travel—persons who usually visit pleasure resorts and begin to move about in May are waiting to visit the world's fair. Local travel is also affected by the disposition of people to hoard money to enable them to visit the fair.

RAILROAD SCRIBBLING.

Supt. C. D. Law is in Chicago.

Master Mechanic F. A. Bider, of the Bass works, has returned from a visit to the world's fair.

Conductor Latham, of the Nickel Plate, has resumed charge of his train after a few trips off duty.

Engineer and Mrs. M. Laughlin are rejoicing over the arrival at their home of a bright little boy baby.

Master Mechanic W. W. Atterbury and D. F. Crawford have returned from a business trip to Chicago.

Walter Adams, machinist apprentice at the Bass works, is confined at home by the illness of his mother.

C. B. Lowell, formerly clerk in Supt. C. D. Law's office and Mrs. Lowell are spending the week at the world's fair.

Brakeman Gibson, of the Nickel Plate, has returned to his duties after an absence of several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson were visiting relatives in the country, when their baby was taken ill and died.

A. J. Yon, the well known Nickel Plate engineer, is taking a week's vacation.

Machinist Pat Burns, of the Wabash shops, is off duty on account of sickness.

Nickel Plate Conductor Thomas Bell was yesterday transferred from a through freight to a local run.

Blacksmith A. Root is nursing a crushed finger, the result of an accident in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop last evening.

J. H. Holbrook, assistant shop clerk at the Pittsburg, is in Chicago today, looking after some business for the company.

John McDermott, of the Pittsburg Blacksmith shop, intended to go to Chicago this week, but he was detained at home by sickness.

Nickel Plate Engineer Joseph Haley, who was enjoying a few days' vacation, returned to his duties on the Nickel Plate this morning.

William Henry, of the converter department of the electric light works, attended the funeral of Robinson at Sheldon this morning.

Major and Mrs. Frank Webber and their son are visiting the world's fair. The major is chief clerk in Master Mechanic Atterbury's office.

Off duty list: Engineer W. H. Durnell, business; Fireman C. Smeltzer, business; Fireman J. E. Stump, sick. All are Pittsburg employees.

Andrew Boiley, of the Kerr Murray works, and William Ayers, of the Standard Wheel works, left yesterday for St. Louis to remain a few days.

Engineers A. Kelker, W. Denney and M. Nahan and Fireman B. Newman have returned to their duties on the Pittsburg after a short vacation.

J. E. Noble, traveling salesman, and George Yost, draughtsman, of the Bass works, went to Delphos, Ohio, this morning in the interest of the firm.

Al Bender, after a short vacation, resumed his work in the electric light works this morning. William Beal, of the same shop, is now taking a vacation.

The Baltimore and Ohio has created a new position, that of superintendent of transportation of the entire system, and Thomas Fitzgerald has been appointed to fill the position.

Jacob Barker, rim inspector at the Standard wheel works, came to the shop this morning in an unusually happy mood. Inquiry revealed the fact that he is the papa of a new baby girl.

Two new class O engines, just out of the Altoona shops, were turned over to this end of the Pittsburg road this morning. They are Nos. 145 and 142, and are designed expressly for the passenger service.

John T. Leach and William Connors last night completed the task of testing all the water stations below along the Pittsburg road, between Chicago and Crestline. These inspections are made semi annually.

Thomas J. Hutchinson is today quietly celebrating the sixty-fifth anniversary of his birth. Mr. Hutchinson came to Fort Wayne in 1849 and for a number of years held a responsible position with the Pennsylvania Railway company.

Yesterday was a good day for sucker fishing. William Glynn caught one which weighed nine and a quarter pounds, and Samuel Wass, jr., of Rhinesmith & Simonson's factory, caught three fish, the combined weight of which was eighteen pounds.

The large Bass improved Corliss engine on exhibition at the world's fair occupies a conspicuous place among the engines there. It is by far the prettiest and we believe the best engine in the lot. It is admired and favorably commented upon by engineers and machinists generally.

The present bonded debt of the Toledo, St. Louis and Kansas City road is $9,800,000. Besides, it has a floating debt reaching nearly a million dollars. The present company was organized June 12, 1886, and in 1890 it was completed as a standard gauge road from Toledo to St. Louis. The road is in the hands of a receiver.

A merry party of Adams county people came to this city last evening and this morning left over the Pittsburg for Chicago, where they will spend a week at the world's fair. They were Henry Zwick, of Decatur, Louis Bosch, W. Gehler and F. H. Witte, of Fidelity. While in the city they were guests of H. Witte, of the Pittsburg pleasing mills.

Tuck R. Baugh and Van Cleary, of the electric light works, were the victims of a joke at an early hour this morning. At 3 o'clock they were awakened by someone pounding on their door and shouting that the electric lights were burning. Hurriedly dressing themselves, they started for the shops and had gone several blocks when they were informed by a policeman that the works were all right.

The committee of adjusters of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers returned yesterday from Cleveland after holding a meeting with the officers of the Nickel Plate road in regard to listing the engineers in position on the roster for advancements and promotions and report that very satisfactory arrangements were made with the gentlemanly officials. The engineers are all doing their duty and giving the company satisfaction, it is asserted.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY BUILDING, May 23, 1893.

WHEREAS, The 30th day of May has been set apart to commemorate the memory of those of our countrymen who died in defense of the union, by suitable services strewing their graves and by decorating their graves.

Now, therefore, I, Charles A. Zollinger, mayor of the city of Fort Wayne, ask our citizens to suspend their usual business between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 5 o'clock, p. m. on Tuesday, the 30th day of May, and join in the observance of this hallowed custom by closing their stores, shops, offices and other places of business between said hours of said day.

Given under my hand and seal this 25th day of May, 1893.

C. A. ZOLLINGER, Mayor.

ATTEST:

STATE NEWS.

William Wehrly, of Elkhart county, attended the circus at Goshen and was swindled out of $60 by sharpers.

Congressman Bynum has picked upon Francis M. Harlor for postmaster at Elwood, and this has created a factional fight.

Elijah D. Collings, of Rockville, who attempted to kill John H. Briggs, has been sentenced to eight years imprisonment.

John McMahon, a Big Four brakeman, fell under his train at Lawrenceburg, losing both legs. He lives at Bolton.

George Gosnell, ex-city clerk of Shelbyville, and deputy county auditor, is reported short in his accounts as agent for the Mercantile Insurance company, of Newark, N. J., and his bondsmen have made it good. The matter has been turned over to the grand jury. The impression is that Mr. Gosnell is largely involved. He has been dissipating of late.

Robert Catterson, of Hoosboro, Ohio, under arrest at Terre Haute on a bastardy charge, George Pinnell was arrested at Indianapolis and Union Burress alleged co-conspirator, have turned state's evidence. Catterson is reported as a desperate character. He was shot at Paris, Ill., in 1891 while trying to escape arrest, and he has served terms in Joliet, Southern and Nashville.

A special session of the grand jury is being held at Danville to investigate the Brown-Weaver murder, and Brown's attorneys will make an effort for a preliminary hearing. After the grand jury reports, and it is anticipated that an indictment for murder will be returned, an application will be made for bail. This will have to be filed before a special jailer, as Hadley, presiding judge, is a witness in the tragedy. Young Weaver, whom the murdered man, is a close observer of the proceedings, but he lets slip no intent of future intentions. Brown's friends are fearful that he will try to avenge his father's death.

Henry Allsert, indicted for the murder of Allen Williamson during a political meeting at Pisgah Hill, on October 31st, was set down for trial at Danville during the present week, but owing to the excitement incident to the Brown-Weaver affair and the disturbed condition of public sentiment, the attorneys for defense asked for a continuance. The case will be tried during the fall term. Williamson was captain of a democratic club, and much partisan feeling has been aroused by this affair, the democracy claiming that the killing was unprovoked while the opposition assert that Williamson had been drinking freely and that he forced the quarrel. The state has asked for a special venire, which the court is not inclined to grant.

SUSPENDED ANIMATION.

A Reporter's Singular Loss of His Senses and Memory.

"Home is a most convalescing newspaper worse not a thousand miles from St. Louis, whose one experience would make a rare article for some item if he would write it up," said ragtime Beetlebee to the counter jerk at the hotel. "We were seven years in the same paper in Cleveland twenty or more, and were top the best of friends. I had never noticed anything strange about him. He was inclined to be reserved and shunned society. I used to go out to his house on Sundays and became well acquainted with his family, which consisted of his wife and two daughters, not yet out of their teens.

"One night we were getting out copy under high pressure when Jack's head sank down on his desk. No one paid any attention to him for a time, but finally the city editor shook him. He didn't respond, and the city editor lifted his head and looked at him. 'Boys! Jack's dead!' said he, as he let him sink back again. Upon examination by a physician, and we workers with him for an hour, but couldn't revive him. The doctor couldn't say whether he had died or not and didn't seem to know. He sent for two or three other physicians, and they held a post-mortem over him and declared he was taken home. He lay in that condition for twenty-four hours. That next night I was sitting up with him, the doctor having exhausted their efforts at his home.

"Suddenly he opened wide and looked at me in a wondering sort of way and I was so rejoiced that I fairly cried over him. Then he began to question me. He was perfectly sane, but retained not the slightest recollection of his former life. How much even remembrance his name. Had he been created that moment the past of his life could have been a mere complete blank to him. When I told him that he had a wife and two children he became eager to see them and made me repeat their names several times in order that he might not make any mistake.

"The doctor said that he must take a long rest, so we went up the river on a shooting and fishing excursion and remained over a week. During that time I noticed over and over again in him all that I knew of his former life. He continued to keep his connection a secret even from his family, but was finally obliged to confess it to his wife. His hopes of success, caused him much embarrassment in Cincinnati, where he was generally known, that he resigned his position and came West. The only thing that he appeared to retain of his former life was his knowledge of newspaper work. In all other respects, which he was remarkably proficient, had to be re-learned.

"Presenting Mr. Beetlebee to a young man with a view of obtaining employment, he said confidentially: 'Now, Jack, I want you to be very careful in the treatment of this young man. He is a little peculiar, you know, and you must not excite him. He has not yet got to be on speaking terms with himself, and it was only a few days ago that I found him in the act of talking to his own face and knocked him down.'

"'Shall we, sir?' asked the Cincinnatian, all of a sudden.

"'That depends. If you please, Mr. Pressenting Mr. Gruff,' corrected Beetlebee, severely.

"'Shall we, if you please, Mr. Pressenting Mr. Gruff,' corrected Beetlebee, severely, bowing to his new acquaintance. The latter was evidently taken aback by Judge Beetlebee's manner.

"'Shall we, sir?' asked the Cincinnatian, all of a sudden.

This experiment of farm life for boys who are deemed incorrigible and who are now sent to industrial schools or houses of refuge is being tried in Maine. It is said to work well. The farm has a large number of buildings and the boys are kept apart as they cannot associate in the large institutions in cities. It is believed, too, that work on the farm, and especially the association of cheerful boys with Nature's works are best for their moral and physical development.

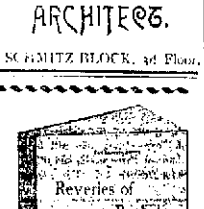
OUR NEW DEPARTURE.

Remarkable Distribution —OF— STANDARD BOOKS!

At Nominal Prices,

And that can only be made possible by our cooperation for the benefit of the "Sentinel" Readers.

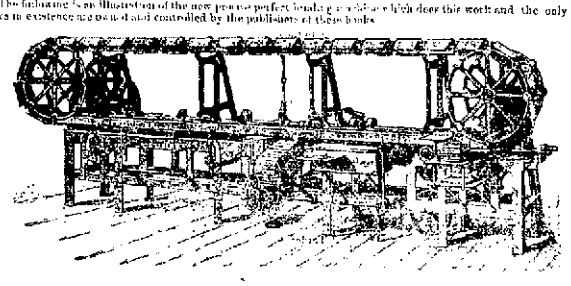


BOOKS LIKE THE ABOVE.

THE Books Cannot be obtained at less Than the Wholesale Price in Any Other Way Than as Described Below.

WE take pleasure in announcing to our readers that we have made a contract whereby we can furnish them with standard books at absolutely less than wholesale prices. The books which we offer each week are by world famous writers and are printed from elegantly new type especially made for these works. The books are Bound by an Entirely New Process, which does away with the old style of thread or wire. Perfectly Flat when open, giving ease and comfort to the reader.

The following is an illustration of the new process of binding and sewing which does this work and the only machines in existence are owned and controlled by the publishers of these books.



Each machine not only binds books without thread or wire but puts a cover on each book. It takes loose parts of the book and delivers the complete work bound at a rate of 120 per hour.

Each week we will announce a new book on this following space. If you do not care for the work mentioned upon that week, you can write to announce books which you will next be interested in. We change date each issue.

FRESH LOCAL LAMPS.

M. E. Woodall, of Pendleton, Ohio, is the guest of the Aldine.

The Emmet club will run an excursion to Rome City on Thursday, July 8th.

The dog poisoner is at it, and the city pound and menagerie dead cabinet were recruited; the police station Corner morning.

Mrs. Ryall, of Owensburg, Ky., formerly of this city, is visiting in Fort Wayne this week. She is here on business and pleasure.

Joseph Zeller, owner at the Anthony Wayne woods, is on duty on account of the death of John Hochstrasser, his brother in law.

A very pleasant social was given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Metzker, on Hoagland avenue, by the ladies of the Congregational church.

All ex-soldiers are requested to fall in line at 10 o'clock and march to the Berry street M. E. church on Sunday to listen to the sermon by Rev. Marks.

Division No. 11, of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, held an important secret meeting last evening. Many was a large attendance.

The entertainment given at the Christian church last evening was a success in every way. Much credit is due to the ladies, who are working hard for a new church.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Watterman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Poole and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Heller will spend Sunday at the country residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. Downing, three miles north of the city.

Fort Wayne lodge No. 12, A. O. U. W., will hold an important meeting this evening. Several candidates will be initiated and arrangements will be perfected to take part in the Decoration day services.

Mrs. Adam Pflyder, of Bryan, Ohio, is the guest of her father, Michael Miller, of 221 West Washington street. Mrs. Pflyder is en route home from Kendallville, where she spent a few weeks with her son, David.

All members of the Boy's Brigade of the Second Presbyterian church are wanted without fail at the church on Monday evening, May 29. The presence of those boys who have not ordered suits, but who think of doing so in the future is desired as well. Suits can be had at about one-half their retail value. Caps, belts and various other parts of the equipment will be furnished with out charge.

On Sunday the fire bell at the central engine house, on East Main street, will keep open house and expect their friends to call and inspect the new quarters. The boys have been busy all week cleaning up and making the interior of the new building fairly shine. On Sunday a fine lot of flowers will be brought from the city green houses and placed about the building. The new engine house is a magnificent structure and perfect in every detail. Fort Wayne has good reason to be proud of the fire department.

The entertainment to be given by the Fort Wayne Amateur Athletic association on Tuesday, May 30, at the Masonic Temple, promises to be an entertaining event. Among those who will take part are the following: Joseph Shuey, Russel Johnson, William Mc Whorter, Harry Watts, George Conway, Bert Brown, H. B. Shouse, George Slater, R. Major, D. Miller, Dannon, Cassiet, Harry Morton, Grover Conners, Charles Yoder, Charles Worthenbee and B. Scott. All the members of the club will appear in one part.

There will be special music at Trinity Episcopal church, corner of Berry and Fulton streets, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, by the full vested choir, the collection being for the benefit of the choir boys. The music which promises to be very attractive, will consist of a beautiful setting by Fred R. Heath of the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis and at the offertory, the duet from the Messiah "He Shall Feed His Flock," and "Come Unto Him," will be sung by two of the boys, Masters Harry Alexander and Roy Barrows.

Frank W. Meyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Meyers, of 21 West Creighton avenue, was thrown out of a buggy in Columbus on the 20th of April and severely injured. His collar bone was broken and he was injured internally. His parents have not received a letter from him giving particulars of the accident. The young man noticed his parents of the accident soon after it occurred, but not wishing to alarm them, he did not give the extent of his injuries. The letter states that Frank is improving and hopes to be in Fort Wayne in a few days, when he hopes to be able to attend to business.

The entertainment given by Schneck and Schiller's bowling by the Spice Bowling club was a surprise to the many friends of the performers, who had put out to witness the performance of Schneck & Co. The closest attention was paid to the performance of Harry Leland of New York city, who played Herbert Fortune's New England Nature. The other characters were taken by a number of heavy young men and ladies and for a first appearance on the stage they did well.
